The Nova Scotia Native Women's Association would like to hear from Indigenous women and other Indigenous persons (status and non-status) who have been impacted by discrimination related to the registration provisions of the Indian Act.

Information around the Bill S-3 will be provided, and who it might affect. (Bill S-3, an Act to amend the Indian Act in response to the Superior Court of Quebec decision in Descheneaux c. Canada)

Information gathered will be used to help break down gender and systemic barriers under the act.
